

SIKS Masterclass Human-Computer Interaction

Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam
De Boelelaan 1085
1081 HV Amsterdam
<http://www.vu.nl/nl/over-de-vu/index.asp>

Thursday November 24, 10:00-16:00 (including lunch and "borrel")

This Master class is part of the Advanced Components Stage of SIKS educational program. Therefore, Phd-students working in the field of Human Computer Interaction are strongly encouraged to participate.

Host: Prof. dr. Gerrit van der Veer

PROGRAM:

In room WN C6.23

09.30-10.00 Coffee

10.00-10.30 Well come and Interaction design for free learning (Gerrit van der Veer)

10.30-11.00 Keynote (James Landay - www.cs.washington.edu/homes/landay)

11.00-11.30 Developing a generic interactive learning environment (Teresa Consiglio)

11.30-12.00 Developing a pattern library for understanding and experiencing e-learning (Els Rogier)

12.00-13.00 Lunch

In room WN-M6.55

13.00-13.30 Developing a Pattern Library for Documentation and Instruction (Brigit van Loggem)

13.30-14.00 Cultural Aspects of Analysis and Design, Teaching and Learning (Laura Benvenuti)

14.00-14.30 Dynamic website optimization through autonomous management of design patterns (Aniel Bhulai)

14.30-16.00 Drinks

REGISTRATION:

Participation is free for all SIKS-members and SIKS-alumni, but an early registration is required. Please, inform Mrs. Elly Lammers If you want to participate: elly@cs.vu.nl

DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 18 2011